2016 NOLA on Tap Homebrew Competition

Homebrewer Experience at NOLA on Tap:

The requested minimum donation is 5 gallons per beer. All homebrews are served in 3 ounce pours, are charged two credits (we are discussing with a vendor about cashless payment options different than the tickets...stay tuned for more information), and are by far the most popular draw. Kyle from Brewstock recommends combining a booth or joining a homebrewer club booth unless you have 15-20 gallons total. Please email him at kyle@brewstock.com with any questions about day-of experience and things of that nature if you are new or are looking to combine with another homebrewer or homebrew club.

To be eligible:

You must fill out the 2016 Homebrewer form and be an active participant in NOLA on Tap. This means you are donating your beer and serving it at the event. All beers competing in contests must be available on tap.

BJCP Contest:

We will have a series of certified BJCP judges and “celebrity” judges who will both judge and give you feedback on up to three beers per homebrewer. You may bring more beers to the event, but due to judging times and participation, the BJCP is limited to a maximum of three beers this year. If you would like to participate in this contest, you must bring this beer to the event and sign up here: <http://nolaontaphomebrew.brewcomp.com> by Saturday, September 17th at 11pm.

On the day of the event, please put your beer in three pre-chilled plain brown bottles with no distinct markings on the bottle, print out the label off the Brewcomp website and put it in a ziplock bag with a rubberband. If you have any questions about this please contact Jeff Elizardi: jeff@la-sPCA.org

On Saturday, September 24th, bring them to the Judges Tent at 10am at the event. There are no specific categories, just a general, open contest. There will be an announcement and trophy for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place beers that will be presented at approximately 5:45pm at the event on the stage.

People’s Choice Contest:

All Homebrewed beers brought to NOLA on Tap will be entered in the People’s Choice Contest. New this year will be wristbands with chips that will allow all patrons over 21 with a wristband to have three votes through an electronic system. Patrons will tell you if they want to give you their vote and which beer and you will input into the electronic system. Voting will end at 4:30pm. There will be an announcement and a trophy for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place beers that will be presented at approximately 5:45pm on the stage.

Best Booth Contest:

Each team that sets up a booth will be eligible for this award. We celebrate your creativity in designing your booth, jockeybox, and overall presentation. New this year will be awards for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place.

This is the third year we are hosting a Homebrew Competition at NOLA on Tap. It is one way we say thank you for donating your beer and time to the Louisiana SPCA. We wish you luck winning a trophy.
